Rates are subject to change; your rates are fixed when your agreement is signed. Hourly rates apply to flights within the continental United States and exclude 7.5% Federal Excise Tax and segment fees, possible fuel surcharges, special event fees, de-icing and other ancillary costs. Flights departing after 7:00 pm or before 5:30 am, flights using high-density airports, and major event travel may carry a surcharge. Booking notice of 24 hours applies to domestic flights on standard days. Turboprop availability varies by region. All terms are governed by the Navigator Access Jet Card Program Agreement. Principal Aviation is an air charter broker; flights are operated by FAA-certificated FAR Part 135 air carriers. Principal Aviation does not own or operate aircraft.
